

Microsoft Recognizes Outstanding Microsoft Dynamics Partner Achievements

Awards recognize partners' extraordinary successes.

REDMOND, Wash. — July 25, 2007 — Microsoft Corp. recently honored 12 of its thousands of partners with the 2007 Microsoft Dynamics™ outstanding partner awards. The recognition awards were presented during the Microsoft® Worldwide Partner Conference (WPC), the company's premier annual event for industry partners, held this year in Denver. Award recipients were chosen from a group of finalists from around the world. At the event, Microsoft also recognized the 2007 Microsoft Dynamics Inner Circle members and the 2007 Microsoft Dynamics President's Club members. "Our partners represent the leading channel in the business applications industry," said Tami Reller, corporate vice president for Microsoft Business Solutions at Microsoft. "The award-winning partners that we recognized at Microsoft WPC 2007 have achieved exceptional levels of performance and deliver outstanding value to their customers. It was an honor to recognize and celebrate their great accomplishments among their peers at the Microsoft Dynamics recognition event." Several key criteria were reviewed in selecting Microsoft Certified Partners for the special recognition, including outstanding sales performance, exemplary technological expertise on Microsoft Dynamics products and services, consistently high customer satisfaction ratings, and feedback from peers and team members.
